BROWN TO HOLD FAMILY BBQ AND TOWN HALL MEETING IN ROCKLIN ON OCTOBER 4TH

Charlie Brown for Congress campaign plans 4th family-friendly town hall meeting, with 3 more to follow across the 4th District

ROSEVILLE: The Charlie Brown for Congress campaign today announced that it will be hosting the fourth in what will be a series of 7 family style barbecues and town hall meetings across 17,000 Square Mile 4th Congressional District this Saturday in Rocklin.

In the past three weekends, over 250 local residents have turned out for each of the BBQ/town hall meetings Brown held in El Dorado Hills, Oroville and South Lake Tahoe. Hot Dogs, Hamburgers and other refreshments are served at each Brown event, followed by comments from Lt. Col. Brown, and a question and answer period with local residents.

"The Brown BBQ Program is a way to celebrate the community we are all proud to call home, and to bring people of all political stripes together to discuss the important issues we face in this election year," Brown said. "Our campaign has always been focused on people, and putting partisan labels aside so we can get down to solving the problems we face in our daily lives."

All area residents are encouraged to attend, and to bring their families, their favorite lawn chair, and their questions for Charlie!

Following this weekend's event, Brown will be planning future Saturday BBQ's in Orangevale, Quincy, and Grass Valley. More information on each BBQ is available at Brown's website, www.charliebrownforcongress.org.
